

Marriage and Civil Partnership

There is a lack of written information and data about inequalities experienced as a result of marriage and civil partnership. The following case studies have been found through a literature search:

- Civil Partnerships not being recognised in data collection forms.
- Civil Partners not being recognised as next of kin and not being treated as such.

www.civilrightmovement.co.uk