Executive summary
In response to COVID-19 national guidance was amended to separate the publication of the Annual Report and Quality Report, whilst maintaining it was still a statutory requirement to produce both. While there has been no requirement for an external audit to be undertaken to provide limited assurance regarding the Quality Report, the report has been produced using the sources, methodologies and governance structure as in previous years and meets the requirements of the national guidance. It encompasses the statutory statements from external stakeholders as required and includes examples of good practice and innovation. The report will be published on BDCFT website by 30th June 2021.
